

A Call to Prayer

We believe that prayer is powerful and that the devil hates it when Christians pray.

At this time of transition in our St James Chaplaincy we are asking people to commit to pray every day until the recruitment process is complete.

Please pray for:

- Unity in the St James Chaplaincy.
- Those involved in the recruitment process:
 - The Chaplaincy Council
 - Bishop David and Archdeacon David
 - The candidates
 - Emma Biaggi and the Diocesan office in London
- Bob and Judie in this time of transition

The Prayer of faith

¹³ Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. ¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. ¹⁶ Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed.

The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective.

(James 5: 13 – 16).
